Stratford High School Students Win 3rd place at Academic WorldQuest

WHAT:

The four-student team from Stratford High School took 3rd place at the national Academic WorldQuest (AWQ) competition in Washington, DC on Saturday April 2nd.

AWQ is a team game testing competitors' knowledge of international affairs, geography, history, & culture. Fifty high school student teams from public and private high schools grades 9 through 12 from 32 states came to Washington to compete in Academic WorldQuest.

Beating 47 other high school teams from around the country, the Stratford students each received a sweatshirt with the Department of State insignia on it.

The students on this winning team are: Sam Keyhani, Alex Artushin, Aditya Kunjapur and Eric Sung. Photos of the winning team are available by request from Communications Director Cori Welbourn Bassett at cori@worldaffairscouncils.org.

The Houston World Affairs Council helped organize this team locally.

SPONSORING ORGANIZATION:

The World Affairs Council system is the largest international affairs organization in the US. This non-profit, non-partisan council system has 433,000 participants, with outreach to over 24,000,000 people each year.
