Get to know Kansas City's National World War I Museum & Memorial. We'll begin with a reception and Great Decisions lecture on refugees and global migration at 5:30 p.m., but arrive early to enjoy a tour of some of the area's most beautiful sights. Top the evening off with world-renowned KC barbecue and jazz.	Connect with other Council leaders and staff from around the country in Kansas City's historic Union Station as we dive into topics regarding World Affairs Council programming, membership, and fundraising in conversation with Kansas City experts. Then stay for an evening program you won't want to miss.	Members of the WACA National Board will meet today at the one-of-a-kind Diastole Scholars' Center, home to the Edgar Snow Memorial Foundation and a hub of Chinese culture. We'll make a visit to the nearby Harry S Truman Presidential Library & Museum in the afternoon.

Stay tuned for registration details from WACA.
